

SOCIOLOGY ROADMAP

Y13

ASSESSMENTS

Y13 will do a Paper 2 (Families and Households, and Media) mock in term 1, and a Paper 3 mock (Crime and Deviance, and Theory and Methods) in term 3 before the finish.

CRIME AND DEVIANCE

Sociological study of crime and deviance including theories of crime, social distribution of crime, crime control and globalisation and crime.

Y12 MOCKS

At the end of Y12 all students will have completed a full paper 1 mock (Education and Methods) and a half paper 2 mock (Families and households)

FAMILIES AND HOUSEHOLDS

Sociological study of families and households including theories of family, changing families, social policy related to family and the changing nature of childhood.

EDUCATION

Sociological study of education including theories of education, education policies and differential educational achievement by social group.

Y12-13

THEORY AND METHODS

Further study of theory and methods focusing on core sociological debates such as 'is sociology and science?' and value freedom.

MEDIA

Sociological study of the media including new media, ownership and control, selection of the news, media representations and audience effects.

THEORY AND METHODS

Discussing the different perspectives in sociology and the use of research methodology to develop those theories.

METHODS IN CONTEXT

Understanding the role of research in sociology and applying research methods to the study of education.

Y11 into 12

Bridging work completed to provide an introduction to the course.

Skills development and introduction to course content.

M.